ORDER:

The Women and Child Welfare Department in UO Note first read above, while mentioning that section 40 of Persons with Disability Act, 1995, provides that the appropriate Government and local authorities shall reserve not less than three percent in all poverty alleviation schemes for the benefit of persons with disabilities, requested to earmark two hours every alternate day exclusively for disabled children and provide them the requisite training and coaching in Government Colleges/Schools of Music and Dance, to enable them to appear for the qualifying Government Certificate / Diploma / Degree courses so that they become eligible for music / dance teacher posts apart from being able to earn their livelihood by providing training to needy children and that their Department may be able to provide required strengthening supplementation to these institutions.

Government, after careful consideration of the proposals of the WD, CW & DW Department, hereby order that;

- 1) the Assistant Director, Disabled Welfare will issue press release inviting applications from possible candidates who have the potential and interest to learn music including senior students from hostels and residential schools. If the Government music college screens and selects a minimum of 5 students as having the requisite potential, the training/course may be conducted for those students between 2:00 to 4:00 pm, taking their convenience also into consideration.

- 2) that the Managing Director, APVCC shall make available Rs.25,000/- as a one-time assistance to the college/school wherever such course/training is provided to the disabled students;
- 3) that the Managing Director, APVCC, shall also pay Rs.5,000/- per month to those institutions to enable appointment of additional hands who should be disabled-friendly and committed to providing quality training to the disabled students; and that
- 4) all such students should be made to appear for the final Certificate/diploma exam to attain eligibility for appointments and for self-employment in future.

These orders shall come into force with immediate effect.

The Director of Culture, AP, Hyderabad, the Commissioner, Disabled Welfare and the Managing Director, APVCC, Hyderabad shall take further necessary action, accordingly.

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR OF ANDHRA PRADESH)
